

HYBA COACHES CODE OF CONDUCT

All Coaches with HYBA will adhere to and follow the below guidelines. I will.....

- Conduct myself in a dignified manner relating to emotions, language, attitude and actions while on the court and in front of my players and their families.
- Act at all times to protect the principles of fun, safety and development of all athletes.
- Demonstrate respect for the ability of opponents as well as for the judgment of referees, officials and opposing coaches.
- Display control and professionalism at all times under any circumstance.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person, including opponents, other coaches, officials, administrators, parents, athletes, and spectators.
- Refrain from physical contact with athletes except where necessary for the development of the athletes' skill(s) or athletic ability.
- Refrain from physical contact, threats or inappropriate language with any opposing coach, referee or parent.
- Be aware and understand the role and influence of a coach as an educator, imparting knowledge of skill as well as proper personal, academic, and social behavior.
- Promote positive feedback while instilling confidence into players no matter their abilities on the court.
- Be reasonable in my demands on athletes' time, energy and enthusiasm.
- Provide an opportunity for all athletes to play the sport.
- Teach players to work together as a team and treat each other with respect through their words and actions while ensuring that no players are causing harm to other players both on their own team or opposing team.
- Ensure that equipment and facilities meet safety standards and are appropriate to the level of the athletes.
- Seek to learn the latest coaching practices that take into account the principles of growth and development of athletes.
- Always remember that these are kids and their love for the sport and growth is what comes first above all else.

By coaching, I agree to abide by all applicable HYBA rules and regulations and follow the HYBA code of conduct throughout the entirety of the season.
