- Everyone entering will be required to sanitize their hands upon entry. Sanitizer will be provided at the door.
- Basketballs will be wiped down with Sanitizing wipes before every game.
- Games will be spaced out with enough time for transition in and out depending on the number of teams playing that day.
- Coaches, players and spectators will not be allowed to enter the gym until 15 mins before their game. They will be required to wait outside at a safe distance from others.
- Only spectators for current games will be allowed in to watch.
- All spectators will be required to wear masks.
- Stands will be marked for spacing purposes.
- Stand seats will be sprayed and wiped down between every game.

**Refunds: HYBA will be watching very closely local and state regulations and monitoring ongoing cases and regulations. Any refunds will be dependent on the season at hand. Should HYBA be forced to shut down our season prior to Dec 19th, we will be issuing full refunds minus raffle sales as this will still take place. If we are forced to cancel our season prior to the start of games, we will be issuing a prorated amount minus the cost of the jerseys. If the season is cancelled within the season, we will be working to refund a prorated amount minus the cost of the jerseys and any costs incurred with gym rental for practices and games. We are working very diligently and hard to ensure a safe and playable season for our players and their families. We look forward to the upcoming season and ask that you continue to bear with us as we encounter this season together.*
